SCHOOL BOARD

The school board has worked hard this year in solving the many problems. Their main project was the expansion of the school building, which took many late hours of planning. The expansion included four new grade rooms, which were in use by the latter part of December. A north wing is also being added, but it will not be used until next fall. Work was started in March to remodel and enlarge the gym.

Shown above are the members. Left to right: Mr. Scheumann, Mr. Berning, Trustee of Marion Township, and also Treasurer of the board; Mr. Lybarger, President; Mr. Reynolds, Trustee of Madison Township, and also Secretary of the board; and Mr. Scherer.

SECRETARY

"I lost my pen, did you see it?"

"May I borrow your stapler?"

These are only the small problems with which Mrs. Dorothy Holle, Secretary, helps us. She is always ready to help both student and faculty members.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE SENIORS OF 1957

The sands of time run through the hour glass in a never ending stream. An eventful hour was checked on September 4, 1956—8:10 A.M., when the Class of 1957 started on the last mile of its high school career on which the sands of time will run out at 8:30 P.M., May 13, 1957. Now again, soon, it will be time for each of you to start the hour glass on another journey—that journey of living in this world that we live in with the sands running out in success or failure—happiness or sadness—acceptance or rejection, by standards set by society and yourselves.

Your teachers over the past 12 years have endeavored to train each of you to be ready for this journey and its responsibilities through education. As your Principal, I believe education is the essence of the democratic hope and that education keeps alive the aspirations of every person that he and his children will have an opportunity to improve his lot. I also believe that education is the substance of freedom—the inquiring mind—the searching spirit—the quest for new frontiers—all these are the basic forces for freedom. With integrity and honesty as watchwords, the search for truth is ever to be encouraged. I believe that education is the means of the individual's cultural and spiritual fulfillment. Man does not live by bread alone but through the cultivation of his fellow men and deeper devotion to his God.

I believe every student has a creative spark and the development of this spark is your most sacred task. This spark makes you truly human—gives continuity to existence and gives hope for the future. Ultimately man remains a secret to himself. Man sees himself only in manifestations, not as an essence. Perhaps this spark indicates that nothing is impossible if each of you Seniors will have the necessary patience and intelligence to face the journey you are about to start.

I wish to congratulate you for such a fine job done on this yearbook. May it in the future bring back the fond memories of your journey through Madison-Marion Consolidated School.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes for everything that is good and honorable to each of you in the SENIOR CLASS of 1957. I remain—

Your Friend

SENIORS

The Senior Class convened and began its last journey in high school with a membership of thirty-six and elected the following as class officers: President, Cliff Hoffman; Vice President, Dean Brown; Secretary, Romona Hoffman; and Treasurer, Delores Lepper. The class elected as a most capable and efficient sponsor, Mr. Justice, who advised the class in its many problems.

As has been the custom in years past to take a trip to New York and Washington, the '57 class also looked forward to its trip with much enthusiasm. To finance the trip, all the members worked on such projects as selling concessions, working on a scrap drive, working at a bake sale or car wash, plus other projects.

Yes, the Senior Class has experienced both work and fun in its journey through high school and to them these experiences will remain "moments to remember."

JUNIORS

The thirty-six members of the Junior class elected the following people as their class officers: Gary Ake, President; Dale Fry, Vice President; Veronica Minnich, Secretary; Barbara Vinson, Treasurer; and Mrs. Macklin continues as their sponsor.

The Juniors made an attack at their financial problem by selling Christmas cards and magazines along with other projects.

They received their class rings and are saying, of course, that they are the best ever.

The Hoagland Wildcats proved to be quite a surprise to almost everyone this year. They have a record thus far of 13 wins and 6 losses which is quite good by anyone's standards. It is, in fact, one of the best records a Hoagland team has had for quite a number of years. They played two games in the County Tournament, the first when they defeated the Woodburn Warriors in the opening game of the tournament by a score of 65-55. The other game was with the Leo Lions who had beaten them during the regular season by a score of 95-83. Leo was chosen the winner of this second match by a score of 59-57, and later went on to win the tournament. There are three Seniors on the basketball team, they are: Grotrian, Guenin, and Zelt, who helped a lot in bringing Hoagland its many victories.

The Reserve Squad had a reasonably good season also. They have a record of 9 wins and 8 losses. At the beginning of the season they seemed to lack experience, but they learned rather quickly and have really improved since the beginning of the year.

Pictured above is Coach Paul Harwood and Assistant Coach Don Deemer. These men are constantly faced with new problems and decisions but they meet them with an air of confidence and soon solve them. Hoagland is proud to have such fine men to lead its basketball team.

Our hard-working timekeeper and scorekeeper, Richard Youse and Dow Counterman, are shown at one of the ballgames.

The unsung heroes of the players' bench are our student managers, Gene Brown and Stan Webber. They are two boys that help a lot when the basketball season rolls around.

HOME STORE MARKET
Monroeville, Indiana

Pictured above are four energetic Freshman Cheerleaders: Sally Hobbs, Lorine Bultemeier, Lou Ann Meyers, and Kathy Hoffman. These girls had very good style and motion in their various cheer and introduced and perhaps originated some new cheers for our Hoagland fans.

BOOSTER CLUB

At the time pictures were taken for the yearbook the Booster Club had not been organized. Nevertheless, the Booster Club was well organized by the time the Sectional Tournament was here. Mrs. Macklin was the faculty advisor for this group, which was comprised of 114 high school students, boys as well as girls. All Booster Club members purchased hats of blue and white before the Sectional so that our colors might be displayed in our cheering block of white with a blue "H."

Here are the two peppy gals who led cheers for our Junior High Team. They are Don Jeanine Bearman and Marna Metheney.

Other activities in which the students of Hoagland participated were bowling, dancing, and roller skating.

Bowling was introduced to Hoagland for the first time this year. Eight teams, each comprised of both girls and boys, traveled to New Haven every Thursday evening after school and bowled two games.

After quite a number of our home basketball games the Student Council sponsored sock hops which were quite popular with the students. Music was provided by the County Recreational Director, Mr. Marion Moak, who played records and called square dances. Many of our students learned various dances which were previously unknown to Hoagland.

Another new activity was roller skating which was done on the gymnasium floor. The skates were equipped with plastic rollers which would not mar the playing floor. The skates were bought by the school and a small charge was necessary for the upkeep and replacement of the skates. Hoagland was the first to our knowledge to begin this skating activity and many inquiries from other schools were received as to the possibilities of starting a similar noontime activity.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class Play was really a big event, because it was the first opportunity for most of the members of the cast to show their ability in dramatics. GRANDAD GOES WILD, a three act farce, was chosen by the class, and Mr. Justice directed it.

The cast as shown at left, is as follows: Standing, left to right: Cliff Hoffman, as a sly tramp, Horatious Xenophon Hooley; Marceil Koenemann, as a pleasant understanding woman, Mrs. Laura Morton; Donna Hoffman, as a cute young girl, Jane Woods; and Romona Hoffman, prompter.

Sitting: Carole Sprague, as a complaining spinster, Miss Drusilla Dobbins; Dean Brown, as an attractive young man, Jack Norwood; Lynda Koehlinger, as a glamour-type, man-crazy girl, Della Harrington; Mr. Justice, director; Delores Lepper, a frigid maid, Angie; Carolyn Scherer, prompter; Larry Roth, as a rather stupid policeman, Grogan; Gene Brown, as a regular young boy, Kip Shadduck; and Margie Bultemeier, as an attractive girl, Betty Shadduck. Two members of the cast are not pictured. They are: Yvonne Schmidt, as a pompous woman, Mrs. Victoria Harrington; and Jim McGowan, as a spry old man, Grandad.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

THE KATZ' WHISKERS, a comedy farce, was chosen as the Senior Class Play. It consisted of a larger cast, and was a little longer than usual. Mrs. Macklin rendered her services as director. Most of this year's cast, had also participated in last year's play.

The members of the cast, as shown at right, are as follows: Lynda Koehlinger, as a sultry young lady, Ardyth Helfer; Carolyn Scherer as a patient mother, Mrs. Katherine Katz; Marceil Koenemann, as an overly-plump lady, Mrs. J. Gurney Helfer; Norbert Schroeder, as a Swedish handy-man, Oscar Jorgenson; Romona Hoffman, as a young lady boarder, Thelma Thorpe; Margie Bultemeier, as a pert seventeen year-old daughter, Mitzi Katz; Delores Lepper, as a whiny woman, Mrs. Alicia Katz; Donna Hoffman, as a young lady boarder, Kay Ryland; Mrs. Macklin, director; Carole Sprague, as the maid, Elviry Sapp; Marjorie Fryback, prompter.

Sitting: Dean Brown, as a spoiled son, Paul Katz; Mary Roth, prompter; Cliff Hoffman, as a super salesman, Humboldt Buzzard; Ralph Selking, as a shaggy bewhiskered man, John Thomas Katz; Gene Brown, as a friendly young man, Algernon Mallard; Richard Wietfeldt as an athletic type boy, Rodney Katz; Beverly Bowers, as the bearded lady, Tabitha Katz; and Larry Roth, as the tattooed man, Clem Corkins.

HURRICANE STAFF

The advanced typing class, under the supervision of Mr. Justice, published the 1957 Hurricanes. Margie Bultemeier was the Editor and Romona Hoffman the Assistant Editor.

ANNUAL STAFF

Lynda Koehlinger served as Editor of the Annual Staff while Carolyn Scherer, Business Manager, took care of the finances. The photographs of the various classes were arranged by the Class Editors, Donna Hoffman and Delores Lepper. The sports were taken care of by Gene Brown, Sports Editor. Organization and photography responsibilities were taken by Margie Bultemeier and Marceil Koenemann respectively. Romona Hoffman served as Music Editor. The advertisements and subscriptions were collected by Keith Guenin and Carole Sprague. The staff worked under the direction of Mrs. Macklin.
